Measuring immaterial cultural phenomena – the OECD Citizen Participation Index

Benedict Stefani, Policy Analyst, OECD
10 August 2023

THE OECD CITIZEN PARTICIPATION INDEX

A FOCUS ON OUTPUTS

- Assesses the results (outputs) of all relevant policies and practices that foster the government-citizen relationship, that is whether the efforts by governments materialize into increased openness in practice
- To what extent citizens can, in practice, access certain information, be consulted, participate in public decision-making etc.
- Moving from openness on paper to openness in practice

A CROSS-CUTTING INDEX

- One of the key deliverables under pillar 2 of the OECD Reinforcing Democracy Initiative endorsed in 2022
- Complimentary to the OECD Trust Survey
- Integrated initiative across GOV and the wider OECD
